Week | FROM ISLAND TO ISLAND: Procida, Ischia, Ventotene, Ponza, Palmarola

It's a jumping between the volcanic islands (Procida and Ischia) and the Pontine islands (Ventotene, Ponza, Palmarola). A beautiful cross between the two islands, ideal for crews of sailing enthusiasts and nature.

Week | NOT JUST ISLANDS: Procida, Ischia, Capri, Amalfi Coast

It is the cruise of choice for those who want to visit in a week, the islands of the Gulf of Naples (Procida, Ischia and Capri) and the incomparable natural beauty of the Amalfi Coast. A relaxing cruise footprint!!! and taste ..!!!.

With shorter cruises, visit fantastic places, shopping and worldliness, between the streets of Capri, Positano and Amalfi.

. Week | BETWEEN TWO COASTS: Procida, the Amalfi coast and Cilento, Capri.

It's a beautiful cruise to do, you will sail between the two coasts: the coast and Cilento. Two coastal different, but united by a common factor: the beauty of the landscape.

That Coast, (named and more famous) where its incomparable scenic beauty make it unique in the world, along with her jewelry Positano and Amalfi, the narrow streets, full of little shops where you can enjoy shopping.

Cilento, where still today the myths: Palinuro and Aeneas, Hercules and Vastasi (the giants of Mount Stella) are mixed with the certainties of history. Scenery, varied and vibrant, where the boundaries between myth, history and landscape melts and blends. Here the crystal clear sea along the white beaches, breathtaking cliffs and crags and caves, mingle with olive trees and Mediterranean scrub.

Week | 7 PEARL 7 ISLANDS: Procida, Aeolian Islands - Lipari / Lipari

It's a cruise from the special charm, which is not easily forgotten. You will be amazed by the charm of these seven islands. Spit from the fury of the volcanoes, and left to cool to gusts of wind and waves, the Aeolian islands still bear the mark of the land of fire and wind (the wind god Aeolus had his residence here).

You have defined the "seven pearls of the Mediterranean, this is because the islands are of extraordinary beauty, other than the 'other. It is always active volcanoes and when you approach one can not help but be encouraged to explore them.

(*) NB: For the crews that provide boarding and disembarking from Procida (Nautical catamaran). gave away about 140miglia nautical, you can not, with one week cruise booked, you visit all seven islands in the Aeolian archipelago

Therefore we recommend: two weeks, an alternative boarding and disembarking from our naval base in Lipari, Lipari or boarding and disembarking in Procida

Embarking: Marina di Procida on Saturday afternoon at 17:00

- Landing: the following Saturday at 9:00. Return to the naval base on Friday evening + night on board.

- Ability to agree upon embarkation / disembarkation in other locations: Monte di Procida, Ischia, Capri, Naples, Marina di Stabia, Lipari.
